

NATIVE PDF HANDLING IN OPUS

OPUS 7 unleashes the power of 64 bit processing. The latest version of Opus supports Multi-core Processing. Breaking the barriers of 32 bit boundaries in a style.

Using side by side execution and the latest C++ compiler OPUS 7 enhances the throughput of OPUS.

One new exciting features of OPUS 7 is native parsing of PDF files.

With complete text ,color and image handling. Other features will be available in the future patches of OPUS 7 like font handling,multicolumn and active objects support. Other features include

- Bar Code
- Native Chart Object

OPUS is a trustworthy companion for more than 20 years helping thousands of clients world wide to have a successful production cycle. Now with improved support for Arabic and anew Chinese interface.

Sample Input PDF File.